

GE Energy offers a broad range of innovative nondestructive testing services for critical plant components across many industries. Our experienced inspectors are trained and certified according to specific industry guidelines.

Power Generation

- Boiler tube thickness surveys
- Power piping examinations
- Gas and steam turbine inspection support
- Balance of plant NDE services
- Repair and retrofit inspections
- Corrosion Under Insulation inspections

Pulp and Paper

- Batch and continuous digester inspections, including stock lines
- Paper machine dryer examinations per TAPPI guidelines
- Tank and pressure vessel compliance testing (API 653,510)
- Piping system evaluations (API 570)
- Power and recovery boiler tube surveys

GE offers a comprehensive portfolio of inspection services for a wide variety of industrial applications.

Petrochemical

- Tank and pressure vessel examinations per API guidelines
- Piping system evaluations
- Reactor, column and autoclave inspections
- Heat exchanger and condenser tube testing
- API inspections
- Volumetric weld examinations
- OSHA process safety management compliance inspections and documentation
- Direct assessment programs in support of in-line inspection

Construction/Fabrication

- AWS certified weld inspections
- Positive material identifications
- Video probe/visual inspections
- Welding radiography
- Fabrication surveillance and third party support
- American Society of Nondestructive Testing "Level III of Record" services
- Concrete structure radiography and radar examinations

For more information, contact GE Energy at (800) 845-1923 or visit us online at www.gepower.com.